Newsletter – Jan-Feb 2015

Welcome to the January-February newsletter about recent developments related to our suite of MA degrees in International Studies.

Dr. Stephen Hurt (Course Director, MA in International Studies).

Inaugural MA Study Trip to Brussels and The Hague

Our current cohort of MA in International Studies students recently returned from a thoroughly enjoyable and educational four-day visit to Brussels and The Hague. In Brussels we visited both DG Justice in the European Commission (see picture below) and the European Parliament. This gave our students a real insight into the inner-workings of the EU and our hosts also offered some excellent careers advice.

Next stop was The Hague and two fascinating visits to the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons and the International Criminal Court. Overall, the students (and staff!) had a great time and the planning for next year's study trip in January 2016 has already begun.

Centre for Global Politics, Economy and Society Seminar Series

Our Semester 2 seminar series began recently with Dr Leandro Vergara-Camus (SOAS, University of London) who spoke on "Sugarcane Ethanol: The Hen of the Golden Eggs? Agribusiness and the State in Lula's Brazil". Details of all the forthcoming seminars are available at <http://www.social-sciences.brookes.ac.uk/Research/GPES/Seminar-Series/>
