Welcome to the December/January newsletter about recent developments related to our suite of MA degrees in International Studies and the MA in International Law and International Relations.

Dr. Stephen Hurt (Course Director, MA in International Studies)

Launch Event of Centre for Global Politics, Economy and Society

This new research centre at Oxford Brookes held a workshop on January 17-18, 2013 on the theme of “The Borders of Global Theory: views from within and without”. The workshop examined the current state of global theory, assessing its contribution to the transformation or modification of social-scientific knowledge and reflected on its future.

Scholarship News

Congratulations to one of our current students, Laurence Blair, who is studying for the MA in International Law and International Relations, on being awarded a Santander Scholarship. A number of scholarships are available for September 2013 entry – see <http://www.social-sciences.brookes.ac.uk/courses/postgraduate/> and click on course information and finance for more details.

New Staff

In January 2013 we welcomed a new member of academic staff, Dr. Doerthe Rosenow, as Lecturer in International Relations. Doerthe’s research is focused on the politics of resistance. This has involved a detailed study of the anti-genetically modified organisms-movement in Britain, Germany, and India.

Alumni News

One former MA in International Studies student, is currently working in Montreal in the field of diplomacy as Cultural Attaché and is second in charge of the first ever Moroccan Cultural Centre to have opened its doors in North America. He said ‘my experience in Oxford heightened my drive and passion for International Relations and Diplomacy. I was amazed by the quality of speakers and the use of the Bodleian library was for me an amazing opportunity to find books that were not available elsewhere’.
