

POSTGRADUATE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Newsletter – May-June 2016

Welcome to the May/June newsletter about recent developments related to our suite of MA degrees in International Relations.

Dr. Stephen Hurt (Course Director, MA in International Relations).

One fee-waiver scholarship available for international students (Deadline 30th June)

International Students who have an offer of a place on our MA International Relations (all pathways) are invited to apply for a single fee-waiver scholarship. This is a competitive process and candidates will be judged on a separate application form. These forms are available from anagy@brookes.ac.uk and must be returned by midnight on Thursday 30th June 2016. The winning student will receive a scholarship to cover 100% of the tuition fees (£13,620).

Centre for Global Politics, Economy and Society 'Bits and Blogs'

Our research centre has recently launched its very own blog. It will feature postings by various members of the centre and can be viewed at <http://gpsbitsandblogs.blogspot.co.uk/>

British Academy Conference

Three lecturers in Politics and International Relations at Oxford Brookes (Doerthe Rosenow, Victoria Browne and Tina Managhan), together with a colleague in Anthropology, have been chosen to convene a prestigious British Academy Conference in London next year. The theme will be 'Vulnerability and the Politics of Care'. The two-day event will discuss vulnerability in a range of different contexts from eldercare to the war on terror.

Centre for Global Politics, Economy and Society Seminar Series

Our Semester 2 seminar series concluded a few weeks ago with a fascinating talk by Prof Jenny Pickerill (University of Sheffield) on "Experimental Environmentalism: Building Anti-capitalist Alternatives". Our next series will begin in October 2016 and planning is already underway to put together another lively and broad range of speakers. More details to follow at the start of next academic year.
